

Louvain Demps

Douglasville resident Louvain Demps of the Andantes is part of the Motown Sound which remains one of the most significant in the history of recorded music.

Throughout the 1960's and 1970's, The Andantes appeared as backing vocalists, sweetening the tracks of The Supremes, The Four Tops, Marvin Gaye, The Temptations and many others.

Mary Wilson of the Supremes cited Louvain Demps as a “great national treasure” and noted The Andantes sang on 95% of every hit that came out of Motown.

Some hits songs by The Andantes:

- “My Guy” (Mary Wells)
- “I Can't Help Myself” (The Four Tops)
- “Reach Out I'll Be There: (The Four Tops)
- “Love Child” (Diana Ross & The Supremes)
- “I Heard It Through The Grapevine” (Marvin Gaye)
- “Baby I Need Your Love” (The Four Tops)
- “My Baby Must Be A Magician” (The Marvelettes)
- “How Sweet It Is (To Be Loved By You)” (Marvin Gaye)
- “It's The Same Old Song” (The Four Tops)
- “Bernadette” (The Four Tops)
- “Jimmy Mack” (Martha & The Vandellas)
- “That's How Heartaches Are Made” (The Marvelettes)
- “Too Busy Thinking About My Baby” (Marvin Gaye)